Liberty Through the Arts and Friends of Fort Plain Team Up

FORT PLAIN - Liberty Through the Arts and Friends of Fort Plain are working together to revitalize two of the downtown area shops on Main Street in Fort Plain. Beginning with the stores' windows, Liberty's Art Program headed by Amy Devendorf created Victorian inspired figurines and archways which are now on display. The two storefronts are in the planning stages to be remodeled to promote community activity. Pictured in front of the newly designed windows are individuals from Liberty's 7 Main Street, Mohawk, Church Street and Canal street Day Habs. From left to right: Ellen Freiberg, Lloyd Dibble, John Pugliese, Mary Richardson, Ivan Camacho, Tom Crosby, Christian Willman, Annette LaDue, Kelly Borst, Millie Herringshaw. Missing from the photo are: Amy Devendorf and the members of the Friends of Fort Plain community group.
