THE NEWS JOURNAL NAMES CHOICES FOR COMMUNITY LIVING A WINNER OF THE DELAWARE TOP WORKPLACES 2020 AWARD

DOVER – Choices for Community Living (CCL) has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by The News Journal. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

“It is a great honor being designated as a Top Workplace by our workforce,” said CEO Jennifer Saunders. “CCL’s culture is one of respect, empowerment and teamwork; our commitment to this culture is the reason we are receiving this award. Our dynamic and dedicated workforce strives each day to enable people with disabilities, their families and other individuals in need to achieve a quality of life driven by choice.”
