Union College Fraternity Visits Liberty ARC for Acts of Service Day

Schenectady – Members of Union College’s Theta Delta Chi fraternity recently came to Liberty ARC to provide a day of fun for the people supported by the agency as part of their Service Week.

Members of Theta Delta Chi fraternity, as well as the Union College Football team, chose Liberty ARC’s Maple Ridge Day Center as their local community partner for their service week and visited the people supported at the Rotterdam-based day hab program site. The fraternity’s national partner is the Doug Flutie Jr. Foundation for Autism, which strives to improve the quality of everyday life for people with autism and their families. For their local service week, they wanted a community partner from the area that stands for the same mission and values for people with disabilities as the Doug Flutie Jr. Foundation.

Members of the fraternity brought football-themed crafts and played games with the people supported by Liberty ARC. Members of the Union College Football team also signed autographs and took photos, which was a fan favorite.

About Liberty ARC

Liberty ARC, a chapter of The Arc New York, is a not-for-profit agency that provides top-quality supports and services to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Montgomery and Schenectady Counties. We are proud of our six decades of bringing these innovative and valuable programs to those most vulnerable in our community. While staying committed to our framework the agency has grown our employment, residential, day supports, family support and health-related programming throughout the years. Our mission- Together we support people with disabilities to achieve a quality of life each person values - together with our Values make up the foundation on which our culture is framed. We are extremely proud to be a pioneering agency, which coupled with a dynamic workforce and our person-centered mission makes Liberty ARC a stand-out in our field.
